Thursday, December 2, 2004
Town Council Chambers

Members Present: Crawford Mills, Chair
Roger Jaques, Vice Chair
Leslie Schwartz
Nicholas Isaak, Planning Board Rep.

Members Absent: Cathy Leach, Secretary
Karl Van Asselt, Town Council Rep.

- I. Meeting was called to order at 7:20 p.m.
- II. Approval of Minutes: The minutes of the November 2004 meeting were approved.
- III. New Business
 - A. Representatives David Murphy, Chris Strong and Mark Morong of the Mill Pond Center filed a request for a temporary sign to be placed at the entrance to the Center announcing coming events, etc. The design shown is attached to these minutes is a temporary one to be replaced within a year by a permanent fixture approved by the DHDC. Their application was approved unanimously.
- IV. Old Business
 - A. Continued discussion of plans to add the responsibilities of a Heritage Commission to current responsibilities. Leslie Schwartz reported on her work with UNH concerning archive information available there through the Special Collections at the library and the GIS system for mapping historic sites in the town. Crawford Mills suggested that we ask the Historic Society to meet with us at their museum for an exchange of ideas and information concerning the Heritage Commission and the town-wide survey of historic sites. Roger Jacques will contact Sandy Amel to see if this can be arranged.
- V. Meeting was adjourned at 8:40 p.m.
