and His Descendants - Durham, NH

To locate the old Leathers cemetery:

At Coe's Corner on Route #108 from Dover leading into Durham, NH just after the Concord overpass turn left on the Piscataqua Road (now discontinued) and travel a short distance to the Durham skating rink. Walk around the rink and on the back side of it is a path leading through the woods to the water. On a knoll inside an enclosure is the cemetery. Evidently the old field stones are for the early Leathers family members.
