CIHM/ICMH Microfiche Series. CIHM/ICMH Collection de microfiches.

Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions / Institut canadien de microreproductions historiques

C 1985

Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

| The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below. Coloured covers/ | | | | | | L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous. Coloured pages/ Pages de couleur | | | | | |
|--|---|---|--|---------------|---|--|--|-------------|----------------------|-----------|--|
| | Covers dama Couverture e | | ninated/ | | | Pages e | amaged/ ndommagé | | nated/ | | |
| | Cover title m Le titre de co | estaurée et/ou issing/ uverture man | u pelliculée | | | Pages di Pages di Pages de | staurées e scoloured, écolorées, | t/ou pell | iculées or foxed/ | | |
| | Coloured ink | aphiques en c | ouleur an blue or black a que bleue ou | | | | | | | | |
| | Coloured plates and/or illustrations/ Planches et/ou illustrations en couleur Bound with other material/ Relié avec d'autres documents | | | | | Quality of print varies/ Qualité inégale de l'impression | | | | | |
| | | | | | !ncludes supplementary material/ Comprend du matériel supplémentaire | | | | | | |
| Tight binding may cause shadows or distortion along interior margin/ Lareliure serrée peut causer de l'ombre ou de la distorsion le long de la marge intérieure Blank leaves added during restoration may appear within the text. Whenever possible, these have been omitted from filming/ Il se peut que certaines pages blanches ajoutées lors d'une restauration apparaissent dans le texte, mais, lorsque cela était possible, ces pages n'ont pas été filmées. | | | | | | Only edition available/ Seule édition disponible Pages wholly or partially obscured by errata slips, tissues, etc., have been refilmed to ensure the best possible image/ Les pages totalement ou partiellement obscurcies par un feuillet d'errata, une pelure, etc., ont été filmées à nouveau /* a façon à obtenir la meilleure image poss. | | | | | |
| V | Additional co Commentaire | mments:/ es supplément | | py is a photo | reproducti | on. Irregul | ar pagination | 1 : [4], 1- | 12, 9, 14-4 | 0, [4] p. | |
| Ce d | locument est f | ilmé au taux i | tion ratio check de réduction in | | ssous. | | 222 | | | | |
| 10X | | 14X | 13X | | 22X | | 26X | | 30X | | |
| L | 12X | 16 | 3X | 20X | | 24X | | 28X | | 32X | |

med here has been reproduced thanks osity of:

New Brunswick Museum St. John

appearing here are the best quality isidering the condition and legibility all copy and in keeping with the tract specifications.

ies in printed paper covers are filmed with the front cover and ending on e with a printed or illustrated impresback cover when appropriate. All all copies are filmed beginning on the ith a printed or illustrated impresiding on the last page with a printed if impression.

orded frame on each microfiche n the symbol → (meaning "CONor the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), pplies.

s, charts, etc., may be filmed at luction ratios. Those too large to be uded in one exposure are filmed the upper left hand corner, left to p to bottom, as many frames as e following diagrams illustrate the L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

> New Brunswick Museum St. John

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernièra image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents.
Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

| 4 | 2 | 3 |
|---|-----|---|
| | - | 3 |
| _ | 4.1 | |

| 1 | 2 | 3 | | |
|---|---|---|--|--|
| 4 | 5 | 6 | | |

MEMOIRS

ODD ADVENTURES, Strange, Deliverances, &c.

In the Captivity of

FOHN GYLES, Efq;

Commander of the Garrison on St. George's River!

Written by Himself.

Freetful Yub! but know, the Power above With ease can save each Obj Et of his Love', Wide as his Will extends his brunlless Grace; Nor lost by Time, nor circumscrib'd by Place. Hippier his Lot, who many forrows past, L ng labring gains his nital Shore at lost; Than who too speedy, hastes to end his Life By some Stern Russian.—

Homer's Odyff.

B O S T O N, in N E.

BEBEBEBEBEBEBEBEBEBE

INTRODUCTION

At the earnest Request of my Second Consort; for the Use of our Family: that we might have a Memento ever ready at Hand to excite, in our offspring a due Sense of their Dependance on the Sover Bloom of the Universe, from the Prevariousness and Vicilitudes of all sublunary

Enjoyments. In this State and for this End they have laid by me for some lears: At length folling into the Hands of some for whise Judgment I had a value; I was presed for a Copy for the Publick: and others defiring of me to extract Particulars from thence, which the multiplicity and urgency of my Affairs would not almit, I have now determined to suffer their Publication. I have made scarce any Addition to this Manual, except in the Chapter of Creatures, which I was urged to have made much larger; and might have greatly enlarged, but I feared it would grow beyond its Proportion. I have been likewise advised to give a particular Account of my Father, which I am not very fond of; having no Dependence on the Virtues or Honours of my Ancestors, to recomment moto the Favour of GOD or Men: Nevertheless, because sime think that it is a Respect due to the Memory of my Parents, whese Name I was obliged to mention in the fillowing Story, and a satisfaction which their Posterity might justly expect from me; I shall give some August, the as brief as p sile.

The flourishing State of New England (before t'e unhappy Enfern Wirs) drew my Father bither, whose first Settlement was on Konnobeck River at a Place called Merry-meeting Bay; where he dwelt for some. Tears: 'till, on the Death of my Grand Parents, He with his Family resum'd a England, to settle his riffiirs. This dens; He came over with design to bave return'd to bis Farm, but on his Arrival at Boston, the Eastern Indians bad began their H stilities. He therefore began a Settlement on Long-Island: The Air of that Place not so well agreeing with his Constitution, and the Indians being peaceable, he again or pleato refettle his Lands in Merry-meeting-Bay: but sinding that Place deserted, and that Plantati ns were carried on at Permanquid; he purchased several Trass of Land of the Inhabitants there. Upon his Highness the Dake of York's resuming a Claim to the se Parts, he also took out Patents up no that Claim: And when Permanquid was set off by the Name of the County of Cornwal in the Province of New-York, he was a strict Sabbatizer, and met with considerable Dissipatives in the Discharge of his Office, from the Imm radicies of a Pe ple who had long lived Lawless. He laid out no inconsiderable Income which he had annually from England on the Place of and at last lift his Life there, as hereaster related.

INTRODUCTION.

I am not insensible of the Truth of an Affertion of Sir Roger L'Estrange that "Books and Dishes have this common Fate"; there never was an one of either of them, that pleased all Palates. [And an fully of his Opinion, in this] "It is as little to be wished for, as expected, for an Universal Applause, is at least two thirds of a Scandal."

To conclude with the Knight. "Tho' I made this Comp sition principally for my Family --- Tet, if any Man has a Mind to take pay with me, he has free leave and welcome. But let him carry this Con-

" filerati h al ng with kini, " That he is a very unmannerly Guest. that presses upon-another Man's Table, and then Quarrels with his

C Dinner.

MEMOIRS

Of Odd Adventures and Signal Deliverances

in the Captivity of

John Gyles, Esq;

CHAP. I.

Containing the Occurrences of the first Year?

N the record Day of Actor, Anno Sect. I. Clerifit 1689, in the Morning, my Ortherships honoured Father Thomas Gyles, Tomas Oyles, my two Elder Brothers and my felf, to one of his Farms, which day on the River about three Miles above Ferr-Chaples +, adjoining to Pemmaquid Falls y there to gather in his English Harvest, and laboured securely till Noon. But after we had Dined, our People went to their Labour fonce in one Field to their English Hay, the others to another founded the Hon Col. Duneare: The Township adjoining there was called James Town, in honour to the Duker of Town; In him Town within a quarter of a Mile of the Fort was the Dwelling House of Town Cyles, Esq; from which he went out that unhappy Mounting.

Fie

Field of English Corn, except my Father, the youngest of my two Brothers and my felf, who tarried near to the Farm-House in which we had Dined, till about One of the Clock. when we heard the Report of leveral Great Guns from the Fort. Upon the hearing of them my Father faid, that he hep'd'it was a Signal of good News, and that the Great-Council had fent back the Soldiers, to cover the Inhabitants : for on Report of the Revolution they had deferted: But o our great Surprize about Thirty or Forty Indians difcharged a Volley of Shot as us from behind a rifing Ground near our Barn. * The Yelling of the Indians, the Whitling of their Shot, and the Voice of my Father, whom I hearly cry out, What now ! What now ! to terrified me; thou he feem'd to be handling a Gun, that I endeavoured ro make my Escape. My Brother ran one way and I agother; and looking over my Shoulder, I saw a stout Fellow. painted, pursuing me with a Gun; and a Curtlass ghttering in his Hand, which I expected every Moment/in my Brains: I prefently fell down, and the Indian took me by the Left Hand, offered me do abule, but seized my Arms, lift me up, and pointed to the Place where the People were at Work about the Hay; and lead me that way! As we passed, we crossed my Father, who looked very pale and bloody, and walked very flowly. When we came to the Place. I faw two Men shot down on the Flatts, and one or two more knock'd on the Head with Hatchets, crying out. O Lord; &c !; there the Indians brought two Captives, one Man, and my Brother James, he that endeavoured to escape by running from the House, when I did to After they had done what Mischlef they could, sat down, making us fit with them : and after some time arose, pointing to us to go Eastward. They march'd about a quarter of a Mile and then made a Halt, and brought my Father to us : and made Proposals to him by old Monus, who told him that they

The Indians have a Custom of uttering a most horrid Howl, when they discharge Guns, designing thereby to territy those whom they fight against. He was about Fourteen Years of Age. The eldest Brother whose Name was Thomas, wonderfully escaped by Land to the Barbacan (a Point of Land on the West Side of the River opposite to the Fort,) where several Fishing Vessels lay, he got on board one of them and came to Sail that Night.

they were firange Indians who shot him, and that he vissorry for it. My Father replied, that he was a dying Man, and wanted no Favour of them, but to Fray, is the first Children; which being granted, he recommended us to the Protection and Blessing of GOD Almighty; then gave it the best Advice, and took his seave for this Life, he ping in GOD that we should meet in a better. He parted with a chearful Voice, burlooked very pale by reason of his great loss of Blood, which boil'd out of his Shoes: -- the Indians lead him aside--!-- I heard the blows of the Hitchen, but neither Shrick nor Groan! [I afterwards heard the had five or seven Shot-holes, thro' his Wastecoat or Jacker, and that the Indians covered him with some Boughs.]

The Indians lead us their Captives, on the Infe fide of the S. cr. II. River, toward the Fost; and when we came within a Mile of their rand half of the Fort and Town, and could fee the Fort, we king from a faw Firing & Smoke on all fides. Here we made a flight mention at the distance of three quatters of a Mile from the Fort, into a thick Swamp. In three I faw my Mother and my two little Sisters, and many the little other Captives taken from the Town. My Mother askid half glades me of my Father, I told her, that he was hill'd, but could fay no more for Grief; she burth into Tears, and the In light ans moved me a little further off, and feiz'd me to a Tree.

The Indians came to New-Harbour, and fent Spies feveral Days to observe how and where the Reople were employed &c. who found that the Men were generally at Work at Noon, and left about their-Houses only Women and Children: therefore the Indians divided themicly of into several Parties, some Ambushing the Way between the Fort and the Houses, as I kewise-between them and the distant Fields; and then alarming the farthest off first, they kill'd and took the People, as they noved toward the Town and Fort, at their Pleasure; so that very few escape I to the Fort. Mr. Patesball was taken and kill'd as heady with his Sloop rear the Bardican. On the first stir about the Fort my youngest Boother was at Play near the same, and ran in, and so by God's Goodness was preserved. Care. Weems with great Courage & Resolution defended the weak old Fort two Days, till that he was much Vounded and the best of his Men Kill'd, and then beat up a Parley. And the Conditions were,

1. That they, the Indians should give him Mr. Patesball's

Sloop:

2 That they should not molest him in carrying off the few People that had got into the Fort, and three Captives that they had taken.

3 That the English should carry off in their Hands what they could from the Fort.

On these Conditions the Fort was Surrendred, and Capt. Weems went off. And soon after the Indians set on Fire the Fort & Houses: which made a terrible Blast, and was a melancholly Sight to us poor Captives, who were sad Spectators!

After the Indians had thus laid Waste Pemmaquid, they SECT. III. Ofthe Trans moved us all to New-Harbour *. And when we turned our portation, of Backs on the Town my Heart was ready to break ! --- I faw the Captives my Mother; fhe spake to me, but I could not answerher! to Penobscot, That Night we tarried at New-Harbour, and the next Day the nearest Indian-Vil- went in their Canoes for Penobscot. About Noon, the Canoe which my Mother, and that which I was in, came fide by lage Eaftward of Pemfide: whether accidental or by my Mother's defire, I canmaquid. She asked me, How I did? I think I faid, Pretty well, (tho' my Heart was full of Grief). Then she said, O, my Child! how joyful & pleasant would it be, if we were going to Old England, to see your Uncle Chalker, and other Priends there? --- Poor Babe! we are going into the Wilderness, the Lord knows where ! --- She burst into Tears, and the Canoes parted! That Night following the Indians with their Captives lodged on an Island. A few days after. we arrived at Penobscot-Fort; where I again saw my Mother, my Brother and Sisters, and many other Captives. I think, we tarried here eight Days : land in that time the Tesuit had a great mind to buy me. My Indian Master

made

^{*} New Harbour is about two Miles East of Pemmaquid, a small Harbour, much used by Fishermen. Before the War there were about twelve Houses, but the rumour of War, disposed them to secure themselves, by forsaking their Habitations.

made a Visit to the Jesuit, and carried me with him t. I. law the Jefuit frew him Pheces of Gold; and understood afterward, that he tendered them for me. The Jefuit gave me a Bisket, which I put into my Pocket, and dare not eat ; but buried it under a Log, featif g that he had put fomething in it to make me Love him : for I was very Young, and had heard much of the Papitts torturing the Protestants &c. fo that I hated the fight of a Jefuit. When my Mother heard the talk of my being Sold to a' Jefuite The faid to me, Oh ! my dear Child! if it were GOD's Will, I had rather follow you to your Grave! or never fee you more in this World, than you should be Sold to a Jesuit : for a Jefuit will ruin'you Body & Soul! and it pleased GOD to grant her Request, for the never law me more lef' I ho' the and my two little Sifters were, after feveral Years Captivity, redeem'd; she died before I returned : And my Brother who was taken with me, was after feveral Years Captivity most barbarously contured to Death, by the Indians]. For b

My Indian Master carried me up Penal/cot River to a Sect. IV. Village called Madawamkee which stands on a Point of OttheOccur-Land, between the Main River, and a Branch which heads rences in my to the East of it At Home I had ever deen Strangers treat- passing from ed with the utmost Civility, and being a Stranger, I ex- St. Ishn's. pected some kind Treatment here: but soon found my felf where the deceived, for I presently saw a Number of Squaws got to-next Eastern Tribe have gether in a Circle dancing and yelling; and an old gri- theilend mace-Squaw took me by the Hand, and lead me to the vaus. Ring, where the other Squaws seiz'd me by the Hair of my Head, and by my Hands and Feet, like fo many Furies: but my Indian Mafter prefently laid down a Pledge and releas'd me. A Captive among the Indians is exposed to Their Co all manner of Abuse, and to the utmost Tortures; unless the Caphis Matter, or some of his Master's Relations, lay down a ties, and of Ransom, such as a Bag of Corn, or a Blanket, or such redeeming like: by which they may redeem them from their Cruelties for that Dance, so that he shall not be touch'd by any.

them from ... brites at Dan-

The Indian that takes and will keep a Captive is accounted his Matter, and the Captive his Property till he give or tell him to another.

The next Day we went up that Eastern Branch of Penobfect River many Leagues, --- carried over Land to a large Pond, and from one Pond to another, till, in a few Days we went down a River ||, which vents it self into St. John's River. But before we came to the Mouth of this River, we carried over a long Carrying-Place to Medoctack-Fort, which stands on a Bank of St. John's River. My Indian Master went before, and left me with an old Indian and two or three Squaws. The OldMan often said, (which was all the English that he could speak,) By and by-come to a great Town and Frt: so that I comforted my self in thinking how finely I should be refreshed &c. when I came to this great Town.

SECT! V. After some Miles travel we came in sight of a large CornOf my Treat. Field, and soon after of the Fort, to my great Surprize:

ment at my for two or three Squaws met us, took off my Pack, and lead Arrival, at

Med. H. ... on me to a large Hutt or Wigwam, where Thirty or Forty
St. John's Ri-Indians were dancing and yelling round five or six poor Captives, who had been taken some Months before from Quechecho, at the same time when Major Waldein was most barbarously butchered by them *. I was whirl'd in among

Il Medocktack River.

A Carrying-Place is a Path or Track in which they pass from oneRiver, or part of a River or Pond to another: its so called, because the Indians are obliged to carry their Baggage over them.

Major Waldein was taken in the beginning of April on the Night after a Sabbath. I have heard the Indians fay at a Feaft, that there being a Truce for some Days, they contrived to send in two Squaws to take Notice of the Numbers, Lodgings and other Circumstances of the People in his Garrison, and if they could obtain leave to Lodge there, to open the Gates and Whistle. [They said the Gates had no Locks; but were sastned with Pins, and that they kept no Watch, there]. The Squaws had a favourable Season to prosecute their Projection, for it was dull Weather when they came, and begged leave to Lodge in the Garrison; they told the Major that a great Number of Indians were not far from them, with considerable Quantities of Beaver, who would Trade with him the next Day &c. Some of the People were very much against their Lodging in the Garrison, but the Major said, Let the poor Creatures Lodge by the Fire! The Squaws went into every Apartment, and observed the Numbers in each, and when the People were all assecp, rose and opened the Gates, and gave the Signal, and the other Indians among them, and we look'd on each other with a forrowful Countenance: and presently one of them was seiz'd by each Hand & Foot, by four Indians, who fwung him up and let his Back with Force fall on the hard Ground, 'till they had danced (as they call it) round the whole Wig- Their men wam, which was thirty or forty Feet in length. But wer of tor when they torture a Boy, they take him up between two recting Cap This is one of their Customs of forturing Captives. Another is to take up at Person by the middle with his Head downwards, and jolt him round 'till one would think his Bowels would shake out of his Mouth. Sometimes they will take a Captive by the Hair of the Head and flor him forward, and ftrike him on the Back & Shoulder, 'till the Blood gush out of his Mouth & Note. Sometimes an old shrivell'd Squaw will take up a Shovel of hot Embers and throw them into a Captive's Bolom; and if he cry out, the other Indians will Laugh and Shout, and fay, What a brave Action our old Grandmother has done! Sometimes they torture them with Whips &c.

The Indians look'd on me with a fierce Countenance, fignifying that it would be my turn next. They champ'd Corn-Stalks, and threw them in my Hat, which was in my Hand: I fmiled on them, tho' my Heart ak'd. I look'd on one and another, but could not perceive that any. Eye pitied me: Presently came a Squaw and a little Girl, came to them, and having receiv'd an Account of the State of the Garrison, they divided according to the Number of People in each Apartment, and foon took and kill'd them all. The Major lodged within. an inner Room, and when the Indians broke in upon him, he dig t out, What now! What now! jumpt out of Bed in his Shirt, and drave them out with his Sword thro' two or three Doors: and as he was returning to his Apartment, an Indian came behind him, and knock'd him on the Head with his Hatchet, flun'd him, and hal'd him out, and get him, upon a long Table in his Hall, and bid him, Judge Indians again. Then they cut and flab'd him, and he cry'd out, O Lord! O Lord! They. bid him order his Book of Accompts to be brought, and crois out all the Indian Debts (for he had traded much with the Indians) and after they had tortured him to Death, they burned the Garrison and drew off. This Narration I heard from their Mouths at a general Meeting ! and have Reason to think it true. And it should be a Warning to all Persons who have the Care of Gagrifons : For the greatest Losses we meet with are for want of due Quation and Circumspection and and laid down a Bag of Corn in the Ring; the little Girltook me by the Hand, making Signs for me to go out of the Circle with them; but not knowing their Cuflom, I supposed that they defigned to kill me, and would not go out with them. Then a grave Indian came and gave me a short Pipe, and said, in English, Smoke it: then took me by the Hand and lead me out, but my Heart aked, thinking my self near my End; but he carried me to a French Hutt about a Mile from the Indian Fort. The Frenchman was not at Home; but his Wife who was a Squaw had some Discourse with my Indian Friend, which I did not understand. We tarried about two Hours, and return'd to the Village, where they gave me some Victua's. Not long after, I saw one of my Fellow-Captives, who gave me a melancholly Account of their Sufferings after I left them Sc.

SECT. VII.

After some Weeks had past we lest the Village, and went up St. John's River about ten Miles to a Branch called Medockscenecasis, where there was one Wigwam. At our Arrival an old Squaw saluted me with a Yell, taking me by the Hair and one Hand; but I was so sude as to break her hold, and 'quit my self: -3-She gave me a silthy Grin, and the Indians set up a Laugh---so it pass d over. Here we lived upon Fish, Wild-Grapes, Roots &c. which was hard Living to me.

SECT.VII.

The first Winter's Hinting.

When the Winter came on, we went up the River till the Ice came down, and run thick in the River; and then, according to the Indian Cuftom, laid up our Canoes till the Spring; and then travell'd fometimes on the Ice, & one-times on the Land, till we came to a River that was open and not Fordable, where we made a Raft, and pass'd over. Bug and Baggage*. I met with no Abute from them in this Winter's Hunting, tho' I was put to great Hardships in carrying Burdens, and for want of Food: for they underwent the same Difficulty, and would often encourage me,

^{*} For the Indians carry their House and Houshold Stuff on their Backs in the Winter, and to these they add, in the Summer, their Vessels and Expiriture, Provisions &c.

faying, in broken English, Ry-ly-great deal Mo fe. But they could not answer any Question that I asked them. So that knowing nothing of their Cuitonis and way of Life; this I tho't it tellious to be constantly moving from Pla e to Place, wet it might be in some respects an Advantage, for it randial in my Mind that we were travelling to fomeSet- " tlement; and when my Burden was over heavy; and the In figns left me behind, and the full Eve ing came on . I fancied I'could fee thro' the Bushes, and hear the People of some great. Town a which Hope might be some support to me in the Day, tho' I found not the Town at Night Thus we have been Hunting three hundred Miles from the Sea and knew no Man within fifty or fixty Miles of us. We were eight or ten in Number, and had but two Indian Men with Guns, on whon we wholly depended for Food: and if any difaster had hap ned, we must all have perished. And iometimes we had no manner of Sullenance for three or tour Days: But GOD wonderfully provides for all Creatures! In one of those Tasks GOD's Providence was remarkable. Our two Indian Men, in Huntings started a Moofe their being a shallow-crusted Snow on the Ground; but the Moofe discovered thehi, and ran with great force into a Swamp: The Indians went round the Swamp, and finding no Track, return'd at Night to the Wigwam, and told what had happened. The next Morning they followed him on the Track, and foon found the Mooie lying on the Snow; for croffing the Roots of a large Tree, that had been blown up by the Roots, having Ice underneath, the Moofe in his turious Flight broke thro', and hitch'd one of his hind Legs in among the Roots, fo fast that by firiting

A Moore is a fine lofts Creat we about eight Feet high, with a longHead and Note like a Horfe with Horns very large and strong [Some of them are about his Feet, from the histogrity of one Horn to that of the other) shaped and shed every Year, like the Horns of a Deer likewise their Feet are cloven like Deers Feer! Their hind Legs are long and fore Legs short like a Rabbit. They telemble a Rabbit alto in the length of their hars and shortness of their Tail. The Female have two Digslike a Mare, tho they sometimes bring three young Ones, are a braining they soal but once a Year, and at one Soil n, we When the Trees part our Leaves, for them. There are a fort of Moose that have a Main like to get it out, he pull'd the Thigh Bone out of the Socker at the Hip: Thus extraordinarily were we provided for in our great Strait. Sometimes they would take a Bear, which go into Dens in the Fall of the Year without any fort of Food, and lie there without any four or five Months, never going out till the Spring of the Year : in which Time they neither lote nor gain in I.eih; if they went into their Dens Fat, they will come out so, or if they went in Lean, they will'come out Lean. I have feen some that have come out, with four Whelps, and both Old & Young very fat t, and then we feathed : and an old Squaw, and Captive, if any prefent, multitand without the Wigwam; shaking their-Hands and Body as in a Dance: and finging, WIGAGE OH NELO WOH! which if Englished would be, Fat is my Eating. This is to fignify their thankfulnets in feating Times! and when this was spent, we fasted till further Success.

The way of their preserving Meat is by stripping off the Flesh from the Bones, and drying them over a Sincke; by which 'tis kept sound Months or Years, without Salt.

We moved still further up the Country after Moose when our Store was out: so that by the Spring we had got to the Northward of the Lady Mountains. And when the Spring came on and the Rivers broke up, we moved back to the Head of St. John's River; and there mades Canoes of Moose-Hides sewing three or sour together, and pitching the Seams with Charcoal beaten and mixt with Balsom. Then we went down the River to a Place call'd Madastessicok; there an Old Man lived and kept a fort of Trading-House: where we tarried several Days, and went farther down the River till we came to the greatest Falls in these Parts, called Checanekepeag: where we carried a little way over the Land, and putting off our Canoes, we went down Stream still: And as we pass'd down by the Mouth of any large Branches, we saw Indians to but when any Dance

f Guillin in his Heraldry mentions it as the Opinion of some Naturalitis, that they bring forth an Unform'd Embryo, and lick their Litter into Shape: --- a groß Mistake! I have seen their Fœtus of all Sizes, taken out of the Matrix, by the Indians, and they are as much, and as well Shap'd as the Young of any Animal.

was proposed, I was bought off. At length we arrived at the Place, where we lest our Birch Canocs in the Fall, and pur our Baggage into them, and went in them down to the Fort.

There we planted Corn; and after Planting, went a sur VIII Fishing, and to look for and dig Roots; till the Corn was Or close fit to Wood; and after Weeding took, a record Tour on the close the same Errand, and after weeding took, a record Tour on the close the same Errand, and after weeding took, a record Tour on the close the same Errand, and after Hilling, we went some distance from the Fort Se Field's report up the River, to take Salmon, and other Fish, and dry them for Food till Corn was fill'd with the Mi.k: Some of which we dried then, the other as it ripened. And when we had gathered our Corn and dried it, we put some it to Indian Barns, i. e. in Holes in the Ground lin'd & cover'd with Bark, and then with Dirt. The rest we carried up the River upon our next Winter-Hanting. Thus GOD wonderfully favoured me and carried me through the first Year of my Captivity.

CHAP. II.

Of the abusive and barbarous Treatment which several Captives met with from the Indians &c.

Hen any great Number of Indians meet, or when green I any Captives have been lately taken, or when any Or meet Broad are retaken, the Indians have a Dance 3 the ST care and at these Dances torture the unhappy People who fill and Death into their Hands. My unfortunate Brother who was taken with me, after about three Years Captivity, deserted with

When the Corn is in the Milk they gather a large Kettler this and boil it on the Ears till its pretty hard, and then take it up and the life of the Cobb with Clam-Shells; and dry it on Bark in the San 1 and which is thro'ly dryed, a Kernel is no bigger than a Pea, and would keep Years and boil'd again it swells as large, and tastes incomparably factors than other Corn.

an Englishman who was taken from Chior Bay, and was retaken by the Indians at New-Harbour and carried back to Penobject Fort: where they were both tortured at a Stake by Fire for some time, then their Noses and Ears were cut off, and they made to eat them; after which they were burned to Death at the Stake: The Indians at the same time declaring that they would ferve all Deserters in the same manner. Thus they divert themselves in their Dances!

Sect. II.
Of their Batbarry to James Alexander, &c.

On the second Spring of my Captivity my Indian Master and his Squaw went to Canada; but fent me down the River, with several Indians to the Fort; in order to plant Corn. The Day before we came to the Planting Field we met two Young Indian Men who feem'd to be in great hatte: after they had pass'd us I understood that they were going with an Express to Canada, and that there was an English Vessel at the Mouth of the River. I not perfect in the Language, nor knowing that English Vessels traded with them in time of War, supposed a Peace was concluded on; and that the Captives would be released: and was so transported with the Fancy, that I flept but little, if at all, that Night. the next Morning we came to the Village, where the Ex-1 taly ended: For I had no fooner Landed, but three or four Indians drag'd me to the great Wigwam, where they were yelling and dancing round Fames Alexander, a Tertey Man, who was taken from Falmouth in Ca, co Bay. This was occasioned by two Families of Cape Sable Indians, who having lost some Friends by a number of English Pishermen, came some hundred of Miles to revenge themselves on the poor Captives! They foon came to me, & toffed me about till I was almost breathless, & then threw me into the Ring to my fellow Captive: and took him out again, and repeated their Barbarities to him. And then I was hal'd out again by three Indians, by the Hair of my Head, and held down by it, till one beat me on the Back & Shoulders to long that my Breath was almost beat out of my Body. And then others put a Tomhake into my Hand, and order'd me get up and dance and fing Indian which I perform'd with the greatest reluctance, and in the Act seem'd resolute to purchase my Death, by killing two or three of those Monsters of Cruelty; thinking thinking it impossible to furvive their bloody Treatment; but it was impreis'd on my Mind, "Tis it in i'er Po see to take away year Life : fo lifefilted. Then there Care Saile Indians, came to me again like Bears bereave I et cheir Whelps, Taying, Shall the acid have loft Relations lyt's Fing 4 lift, thefer an English horse to be beard am, ng us 8%, "Then they beat me again with the Axe: Then I rep in chithas I had not fent two er three of them out of the World before me, for I tho't that I had much rather die than fuffer any longer. They left me the second time, and the other Ledians put the Tomhake Il into my Hand again, and compulled me to fing : and then I feem'd more refelute than Defore to destroy some of them; but a strange and strong Impulse that I should return to my own Piace & People, Suppreis'd it as often as fuch a motion rose in my Breast. Not. one of the Indians shew'd the least Compassion: but I saw the Tears run down plentifully on the Checks of a Frenchman that fat behind; which did not alleviate the Tortures that poor James and I were forced to endure for the most pact of this tedious Day; for they were continued till the Evening: and were the most severe that ever I met with in the whole fix Years that I was Captive with the Indians. --- After they had thus inhu namely abused us, two Indians took us up and threw us out of the Wigwam, and we crawled away on our Hands & Feet, & were fearce able to wall &c. for several Days. Some time after they . Zain concluded on a merry Dance, when I was at some Untance from the Wigwam dreffing Leather, and an Indian was to kind as to tell me that they had got James Alexander, and were in fearch forme. My Indian Master and his Squaw bid me run as for my Life into a Swamp and hide, and not to difcover my felf unless they both came to me, for then I might be affired the Dance was over. I was now matter of their Language, and a Word or a Wink was enough to excite me to take care of One. Fran to the Swamp, and hid in the thickest place that I could find. I heard hollowing and who ping all around me; fometimes they pass'd very near,

(5)

The Tominke is Wirlike Club, the Shape of which may be then i Cares of Elegalians, one of the tour Indian Chiefe, which Cares are common among that.

and I could hear some threaten, and others flatter me, but . I was not dispos'd to dance : and if they had come upon , I resolv'd to show them a pair of Heels, and they must have had good luck to have catch'd me. I heard no more of them till about Evening [for I think I flept] when they came again, calling Chon, Chon, but John would not trust them, After they were gone, my Master and his Squaw came where they told me to hide, but could not find me; and when I heard them fay with some concern, that they believ'd that the other Indians had frightned me, into the Woods, and that I was lost; I came out, and they feem'd well pleas'd: and told me, that James had had a bad Day of it; that as foon as he was releas'd he ran away into the Woods, & they believ'd he was gone to the Mobawks. James foon returned, & gave me a melancholly Account of his Sufferings : and the Indians fright concerning the Mobawks pass'd over. They often had terrible apprehension of the Incursion of the Mobawks *. One very hot Season a great Number gathered together at the Village; and being a very A little Comedy with droughty People, they kept James and my self Night and your Trage- Day fetching Water from a Cold Spring, that ran out of a rocky Hill about three Quarters of a Mile from the Fort. In going thither, we crois'd a large Interval-Corn-Field, and then a Descent to a lower Interval hefore we ascended the Hill to the Spring. James being almost dead as well I, with this continual Fatigue, contrived to fright the Indians : he told me of it, but conjur'd me to Secrecy, yet faid, he knew that I could keep Counsel. The next dark Night James going for Water, fet his Kettle on the descent to the lowest Interval; and ran back to the Fort, puffing & blowing, as in the utmost Surprize; and told his Master that he, faw fomething near the Spring, that look'd like Mobawks : [which he faid were only Stumps-afide] his Master being a most couragious Warrior, went with James to make discovery, and when they came to the brow of the Hill, James pointed to the Stumps, and withal touch'd his Kettle with

medy with

dy.

^{*} These are called also Maquas, a most ambitious, haughty and blood thirsty People : from whom the other Indians take their Measures and Manners : and their Modes and Changes of Dreis &c. his his Toe, which gave it motion downfill, and at every turn of the Kettle the Bail clattered; upon which James and his Master could see a Mobatuk in every Stump on motion, and turn'd Tail to, and he was the best Man that could run sastes. This alarm'd all the Indians in the Village. They tho' about thirty or forty in number, pack'd off Bag and Baggage, some up the River and others down: and did not return under sisteen Days, and the heat of the Weather being finely over, our hard Service abated for this Season. I never heard that the Indians understood the Occasion of the Fright, but James and I had many a private. Laugh about it.

But my most intimate and dear Companion was one John Evans, a Young Man taken from Quochechs. We as often Sect. III. as we could, met together, and made known our Grievances to each other, which feem'd to eafe our Minds : but ficulties and when it was known by the Indians, we were firictly exa- Death &co mined apart, and falfely accused, that we were contriving to desert; but we were too far from the Sea to have any tho't of that: and when they found that our Story agreed, we received no Punishment. An English Captive Girl about this time, (who was taken by Medocawando) would often falfely accuse us of plotting to desert, but we made the Truth so plainly appear, that she was check'd and we released. the thirdWinter of my Captivity, he went into the Country, and the Indians imposed a heavy Burden on him, tho' he was extream Weak with long Fasting: and as he was going off the Upland over a Place of Ice which was very hollow he broke thro', fell down & cut his Knee very much, notwithstanding he travelled for some time: but the Wind and Cold were so forceable, that they soon overcame him, and he sat or fell down, & all the Indians pass'd by him : some of them went back the next Day after him, or his Pack, and found him, with a Dog in his Arms, both froze as stiff as a Stake. And all my fellow Captives, were dispersed and dead : but thro' infinite & unmeritedness Goodness I was supported under, and carried thro' all Difficulties.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

Of further Difficulties and Deliverances.

Secr. I. Of a pear escape from Death by Lost.

NE Winter as we were moving from Place to Place, our Hunters kill'd some Moose; and one lying some Miles from our Wigwams, a Young Indian & my felf were ordered to fetch part of it. We fet out in the Morning when the Weather was promising, but it proved a very Cold, Cloudy Day: It was late in the Evening we arrived at the Place where the Moofe lay: fo that we had no time to provide Materials for Fire orShelter. At the same time a Storm came on very thick of Snow, and continued till the next Morning: We made a small Fife with what little Rubbish we could find around us, which with the heat of our Bodies melted the Snow upon us as fait as it fell, and fill'd our Cloaths with Water. Nevertheleis, early in the Morning, we took our Loads of Mooie-Flesh, and set our, in order to return to our Wigwams: We had not travelled far before my Moose-Skin Coat (which was the only Garment that I had on my Back, and the Hair was in most Places worn off) was froze stiff round my Knees like a Hoop, as likewife my Snow-shoes & Shoe-clouts to my Feet! Thus I march'd the whole Day without Fire or Food! at first I was in great Pain, then my Flesh numb'd, and I felt at times extream Sick, and tho't I could not travel one foot further; but wonderfully reviv'd again. After long travelling I felt very drowfy, & had thoughts of fetting down; which had I done, without doubt I had fall'n on my final Sleep; as my dear Companion, Evans, had done before; for my Indian Companion, being better Cloath'd, had left me long before: but again my Spirits reviv'd as much as if I had receiv'd the richest Cordial! Some Hours after Sun-set I recovered the Wigwam, and crawl'd in with my Snow-shoes on. The Indians cry'd out, The Captive is froze to Death! They took off my Pack, and where that lay against my Back was the only Place that was not frozen. The Indians cat off my Shoes, and stript the Clouts from my Feet, which were as void of feeling as any frozen Flesh could be : but I had not fat long by the Fire, before the Blood began to circulate.

culate, and my Feet to my Ankies turn' lh'a k, & is else le ! with bloody Blitters, and were inexpecially prairie. The Indians faid one to another, His Feet will r.t, and feed die. Nevertheleis, I flept well at Night. Soon atter the Skin came off my leet from my Ankles whole like a Shee, at f lettingy Toes naked without a Nail, and the ends of my great Toe-Bones bare, which in a little tin e turn'd black, to that I was obliged to cut the first Joint off with my knife. The Indians gave mcRags to bind up my Feer, Scadyis'u me to apply Fir-balfom, but withal faid, that they believ'd it was not worth while to use means, for I should certainly die. But by the use of my Elbows and a Stick in each Hand, I fliov'd my felf on my Bottom, over the Snow from one Tree to another, till I got some Fir-talsom, then I usu'd it in a Clam-shell till it was of a consistence like Salve, and app'v'd it to my Feet and Ankles, and by the divine Bleffing within a Week I could go about upon my Heels with my Staff. And' thro' GOD's goodness, we had Provision enough, so that we did not remove under ten or fifteen Days, and then the Indians made two little Hoops fomething in Form as a Snowfinge, and feiz'd them to my Feet : and I follow'd them in their Track on my Heels from Place to Place; iometimes shalf Leg deep in Snow & Water, which gave ne the most acute Pain imaginable, but I was forced to walk or die. But within a Year my Feet were intirely well, & the Nai's came on my great Toe's: so that a very critical Eve, cou'd france perceive any part miffig, or that they had been freze at all!

In a Time of great scarcity of Provisions, the Indians chas'd Ster II. a large Moofe into the River and kill'd him; and brought . . B. the the Flesh to the Village, and laid it on a Scassold in a large FrictaScas-Wigwam, in order to make a Feast. I was very officious in "old supplying them with Wood & Water, which pleased them fo well, that they now & then gave me a piece of Flesh half boil'd or roasted, which I did eat with eagerness: and I doubt without great Thankfulness to the divine Bring, who Toextraordinarily fed me ! --- At length the Scaffold broke; and one large Piece fell and knock'd me on the Head [the Indians faid that I lay flun'd a confiderable time] the fi:ft.

I was tenfible of was a murmuring Notice in my Ears, then my Sight gradually return'd, with an extream Pain in my Head, which was very much bruifed, and it was long before I recovered, the Weather being very Hot.

SECT. III. overletting of a Canoz.

I was once with an Indian fishing for Sturgeon, the Indian 6-f om drow- darting one, his Feet slipt and turn'd the Canoe bottom upning by the wards, with me under it; holding fast the Cross-bar (for I could not Swim) with my Face to the bottom of the Canoe. But I turn'd my felf and bro't my Breast to bear on the Crofs-bar : expecting every Minute, that the Indian wou'd have tow'd me to the Bank : But be bad other Fift to Fry! Thus I continued a quarter of an Hour without want of Breath, founding for Bottom, till the Current drove me on a Rocky Point, where I could reach Bottom; there I stop'd and turn'd up my Canoe. I look'd for the Indian, and he was half a Mile distant up the River. I went to him, and ask'd, Why he did not tow me to the Bank, feeing he knew that I could not Swim? He faid he knew that I was under the Canoe, for there were no Bubbles any where to be icen, & that I should drive on the Point : therefore he took care of his fine Sturgeon, which was eight or ten Feet long.

SECT. IV. stance of pretervation ing.

--- Fishing for Salmon at the Fall of about fifteen Feet of Another In- Water, there being a deep Hole at the foot of the Fall; the Indians went into the Water to wash themselves, & asked from drown- me to go in with them. I told them that I could not Swim. They bid me strip [which was done] and dive across the deepest Place, and if I fell short of the other side, they faid they would help me. But instead of diving across the narrowest, I was crawling on the bottom into the deepest Place: but not feeing me rife, and knowing where-abouts I was, by the bubling of the Water; a young Girl, dove into the Water, and seizing me by the Hair of my Head, drew me out : otherwise I had perished in the Water +.

^{&#}x27;Tho' both Male and Female may be in the Water at a Time, they have each of them more or less of their Cloaths on, and behave with the utmost Chastity and Modesty. While

While at the Indian Village, I had been cutting Wood, and Sice was binding it up with an Indian-Rope in order to carry it (" niv "ricto the Wigwam, when a flout, ill-natur'd young Fellow about 20 Years of Age, threw me backward, far on my Breatt, and Made pulling out his Knife, faid that he would kill me, for he had never yet kill'd an English Person. I told him that he might go to Wars' and that would be more Manly, than to kill a poor Captive who was doing their Drudgery for them. Notwithstanding all that I could fay, he began to cut & stab me on my Breaft. I feiz'd him by the Hair, & tumbled him from off me on his Back, & follow'd him with my Fift and Knee fo, that he prefently faid he had enough; 'by: when I law the Blood run & felt the Smart, Lat him again and bid him get up and not lie there like a Dog .-- told him of his former Abules offered to me & other poor Captives, and that if ever he offered the like to me again, I would pay him double. I fent him before me, took up my Burden of -Wood, & came to the Indians and told them the whole Truth'; and they commended me: And I don't remember that ever he offered; me the least Abuse afterward; tho' he was big enough to have dispatched two of me. I pray GOD ! may never be forgetful of his wonderful Goodness! and that there Inflances may excite others in their Advertities to make their Addresses to the Almighty; and put their Confidence in Him in the use of proper Means.

C H A P. IV.

Of remarkable Events of Providence in the Deaths of feveral barbarous Indians.

THE Priest of this River, was of the order St. Francis, Step. I. a Gentleman of a humane, generous Disposition: in The Deaths his Sermons he most severely reprehended the Indians for of those Satheir Barbarities to the Captives: he would often tell them, Sable Indians that, excepting their Errors in Religion, the English were mentioned, a better People than themselves; and that God would re-Ch.H.Sch.H. markably punish such cruel Wretches, and had begun to execute his Vengeance upon such! He gave an Account of the Retaliations of Providence to those murderous Cope-Sable Indians above mentioned. One of whom ran a Splinter into his Toot, which fester'd and rotted his Flesh till it kill'd him. Another ran a Fish-bone into her Hand or Arm, and she rotted to Death, not with standing all Means that were used. In some such manner they all died, so that not one of shose two Families lived to return home. Were it not for this Remark of the Priess, I should not, perhaps, have made the Obigivation.

There was an old Schaw who ever endeavoured to outSect. II. do all others in Cruelty Captives. Where-ever she came
Of a Bar-into a Wigwam, where any poor naked starved Captives barous Old were fitting near the Fire; if they were grown Persons, she would privately take up a Shovel of hotCoals, & throw them into their Bosom; or Young Ones, she would take by the Hand or Leg, and drag them thro' the Fire &c. The Indians according to their Custom left their Village in the Fall of the Year and dispersed themselves for Hunting, and after the first or second removal, they all strangely torgat that old Squaw and her Grandson about Twelve Years of Age. They were found dead in the Place where they were left, some Months afterward, and no surther motice taken of them. This was very much observed by the Priest; and seem'd strange to all that heard it, for the Indians were generally very careful not to leave their Old or Young?

In the latter part of Summer, or beginning of Autumn, Sect. III. the Indians were frequently frighted by the Appearance of Of a Piague strange Indians passing up & down this River in Canoes, and about that Time the next Year died more than One Hundred Persons of Old & Young: all or most of those that saw those strange Indians! The Priest said, that it was a fort of Plague. A Person seeming in persect Health, would bleed at the Mouth & Nose, turn blue in Spots, and die in two or three Hours [It was very tedious to me who was forced to move from Place to Place this cold Season. The Indians applied red Oker to my Sores, which by GOD's Blessing cured me.] The Indians all scattered, it being at the werst as Winter came on; and the Blow was so great that the Indians did not Seitle or Plant at the Village while I was on the River, and I know not whether they have to this Day!

Before they thus deferted the Village, when they came in from Hunting, they would be drunk and fight for feveral Days and Nights together, till they had spent most of their Skins in Wine & Brandy, which was brought to the Village by a French Man, call'd Monfieur Sigenioneer.

edea e angle dialegal languaga angla.

CHAP. V.

Of their Familiarity with & Frights from the Devil &c.

THE Indians are very often furprized with the Appea- Ster. I. rance of Ghofts & Demons ; and fometimes encout- Or their Poraged by the Devil, for they go to him for Success in Hunt- wawing. ing &c. I was once Hunting with Indians who were not brought over to the Romish Faith: and after several Days Hunting they proposed to inquire, according to their Custom, what Success they should have. They accordingly prepared many Hot-Stones, and laid them in an heap, & made a fmall Hutt covered with Skins & Matts, and then in the dark Night wo of the Powaws went into this Hot-House with a large veffel of Water, which at Times they poured on those hot Rocks, which raised a thick Steam, so that a thi di Indian was oblig'd to stand without, and life up a Matt, to give it vent when they were almost juffocated. There was an old Squaw who was kind to Captives, and never join'd with them in their Powawing to whom I manifested an carnest defire to see their Management: She told me, that if they knew of my being there, they would kill me, and that when the was a Girl, the had known Young Persons to be taken away by an hairy Man : and therefore she would not advice me to go, left the hairy Man should carry me away. told her that I was not afraid of that hairy Man, nor could he hurt me if the would not discover me to the Powaws. At length she promised that she would not, but charged me to be careful of my felf. - I went within three or four leet of the Hot-House, for it was very daik, and heard ilrange

Noises & Yellings, such as I never heard before. At Times the Indian who tended without would lift up the Matt, and a Steam rise up, which look'd like Fire in the dark. I lay there two or three Hours, but saw none of their hairy Men or Demons: And when I found that they had finished their Ceremony, I went to the Wigwam, and told the Squaw what had pass'd; who was glad that I return'd without hurt; and never discover'd what I had done. After some time, inquiry was made, what Success we were like to have in our Hunting? The Powaws said, that they had very likely Signs of Success, but no real, visible Appearance as at other Times. A few Days after, we moved up the River, and had pretty good Succeis.

One Afternoon as I was in a Canoe with one of the Powaws, the Dog bark'd, and prefently a Moose pass'd by, within a few Rods of us, so that the Waves which he made by wading roll'd our Canoe; the Indian shot at him, but the Moose took very little notice of it, and went into the Woods to the Southward: the Fellow said, I'll try if I can't fetch you back, for all your base. The Evening following, we built our two Wigwams on a Sandy Point on the upper End of an Island in the River, Northwest of the Place where the Moose went into the Woods: and the Indian powaw'd the greatest part of the Night following, and in the Morning we had the fair track of a Moose, round our Wigwams, tho we did not see or taste of it. --- I am of Opinion, that the Devil was permitted to humour those unhappy Wretches sometimes, in some things.

SECT. II. An Indian being some Miles from his Wigwam, and the An Instance Weather being warm, he supposed the Hedge-Hogs would of the Devil's come out of their Den, he way-laid the Mouth of its till frighting the late at Night. [See Chap. 6. Sect. 3.] They not coming out as usual, he was going home, but had not passed far, before he saw a Light like a Blaze, at a little distance before him, and darting his Spear at it, it disappeared; then fore him, and darting his Spear at it, it disappeared; then on the Bank of the River, he heard a loud Laughter, with a noise like a ratling in a Man's Throat. The Indian rail'd at the Demon whom he suppos'd made the Noise, calling it a rottenSpirit of noSubstance &c. He continued to hear the Noise and see the Light 'till he came into the Wigwam, which he entred, in his hunting Habit, with Snow-shoes and all on; so frighted, that, it was some time before he could speak to relate what had happened.

That it may further appear how much they were deluded, Sicr. III. or under the Influence of Satan, read two Stories which T to Indian were related and believed by the Indians.

T to Indian Publes, • Of an Indian

The first; of a Boy who was carried away by a large Bird called a Gulloua, who buildeth her Nest on an high Rock Of an Indian or Mountain. A Boy was Hunting with his Bow & Arrow and return'd at the Foot of a Rocky Mountain, when the Gulloua came by a Gulloua diving thro' the Air, grasp'd the Boy in her Talons; and tho' he was eight or ten Years of Age, she soar'd alost, and laid him in her Nest; a Prey for her Young; where the Boy lay constantly on his Face, but would look sometimes under his Arms and faw two Young Ones with much Fish and Flesh in the Nest, and the old Bird constantly bringing more.' So that the young Ones not touching him, the old One claw'd him up and fet him where she found him; who returned, and related the odd Event to his Friends. have, in a Canoe, pass'd near the Mountain, the Indians have faid to me, There is the Nest of the great Bird that carried the Boy away: And there feem'd to be a great number of Sticks put together in form of a Nest on the Top of the Mountain. At another time they said; There is the Bird, but be is now, as a Boy to a Giant; to what he was in The Bird which they pointed to was a large former Days. speckled Bird, like an Eagle, tho' somewhat larger.

The other Notion is, That a young Indian in his Hunting Of a Boy that was belated and loft his Way, and on a fudden he was in-was enrort troduced to a large Wigwam full of dry'd Eels, which prov'd tain'd by a to be a Beaver's House, in which he liv'd till the Spring of Bayer, the Year, when he was turned out of the House, and set up on a Beaver-Damm, and went Home, and related the Affair to his Friends; at large.

CHAP.

[—]And whether Gods or Birds obficence they were, Our Yous for Pandon and for Peace profer

CHAP. VI.

A Description of several Creatures commonly taken by the Indians on St. John's River.

Sict. I. Of the Bia-

HE Beaver has a very thick strong Neck, his fore Teeth, which are two in the upper, and two in the under Jaw, are concave and sharp like a Carpenter's Googe. Their fide, Teeth are like a Sheep's, for they chew the Cut. Their Legs are short, the Claws iomething longer than in other Creatures; the Nails on the Toes of their hind Feet are flat like an Ape's, but join'd together by a Membrane as shose of Water Fowl, their Tails broad and flat like the broad End of a Paddle. Near their Tails they have four Bottles, two of which contain Oil, the other Gum, the necks of these meet in one common Orifice; the latter of there contain the proper Castorum, and not the Testicles, as. tome have fancied, for the Testicles are diftinct & seperate from thele, in the Males only; but the Castorum and Oyl-Bottles are common to Male and Female. With this Oyl and Gum they preen themselves, so that when they come out of the Water it runs off them, as it doth off a Fowl. They have four Teats, which are on their Breasts, so that they hug up their Young, and luckle them, as Women do their Infants. They have generally two and sometimes four in a Litter. I have seen seven or five in the Matrix: but the Indians think it a strange thing to find so many in a Litter, and they affert, that when it so happens, the Dam kills all above four. They are the most laborious Creatures. that I have met with. I have known them to build Damms across Rivers which were thirty or forty Perch wide, with Wood & Mud, fo as to flow many Acres of Land: in the deepest part of a Pond so raised, they build their Houses round in the Figure of an Indian Wigwam, eight or ten Feet in height, and fix or eight Feet diameter on the Floor; which is made descending to the Water, the Parts near the Center about four, and near the Circumference between ten and twenty Inches above the Water: These Floors are covered with strippings of Wood likeShavings; on these they fleep with their Tails in the Water, and if the Freshits rise they have the advantage of rifing on their loor to the ligheft part. They feed on the Leaves and Back of Trees and Pond-Lilly-Roots. In the I'all of the Year they lay in their Provision for the approaching Winter; cutting down Trees great and finall, with one end in their Mouths they drag their Branches near to their House, and fink many Cords of it. [They will cut down Trees of a Fathom in Circumference. They have Doors to go down to the Wood under the Ice, and in case the Irethus the break down and carry off their Store of Wood, they often flarve. They have a Note for converfing, calling & warning each other, when at Work or leeding; Et while they are at Labour they keep out a Guard, who upon the first approach of an Enemy to firikes the Water with it's Tail, that he may be heard half a Mile; which so alarmathe rest, that they are all fi'ent, quit their Labour, and are to be feen no more for that Time. And if the Male or Female die, the furgiving fecks a Mate, and conducts him or her to their House, and carry on Affairs as above.

The Bilewin is a very fierce and milehievous Creature: Secr. II. about the biguess of a middling Dog, having short Legs, broad Feet, & very fliarp Claws; and in my Opinion may be reckoned a Species of Cats. They will climb Trees, and wait for Moofe and other Creatures who feed below, and when an Opportunity prefents jump and firike their Claws in them so tall, that they will hang on them 'till they have gnaw'd the main Nerve of the Neck afunder, & the Creature dies. I have known many Moofe kill'd thus. I was once travelling a little way behind feveral Indians, & hea d them Laughing very merrily; when I came to them, they shew'd me the Track of a Moose, and how a Welverin had climb'd a Tree, and where he had jump'd off upon the Moofe; and the Moofe had given feveral large Leaps, and happening to come under a Branch of a Tree, had broke the W lverin's hold and tore him off: and by his Track in the Snow, he went off another, with short steps, as if he had been stun'd with the Blow. The Indians who impute such Accidents to the cunning of the Creature, were wonderfully pleafed that the Moofe should thus out-wit the mischievous Wolverin!

These Welverins, go into Wigwams which have been left for any Time, scatter the Things abroad, and most filthily pollute them with Ordure. I have heard the Indians fav. that they have hal'd their Guns from under their Heads, while they were afleep; and left them so defil'd. dian told me, that having left his Wigwam with fundry Things on the Scaffold, among which was a Birch-Flask with several Pounds of Powder in it: At their return they were much surpriz'd and griev'd, for a light Snow had fallen, and a Wolverin visits their Wigwam, mounts the Scaffold, and --- to plundering, heaves down Bag & Baggage; the Powder happ'ned to fall into the Fire, which fill'd the Wolverin's Eyes, and threw him and the Wigwam some At length they found the blind Creature rambling backward and forward, had the fatisfaction of kicking and beating him about, which in great measure made up their Lofs: and then they could contentedly pick up their Utenfils, and rig out their Wigwam!

SECT. III. Our Hedge-Hog or Urchin is about the bigness of a Hog Of the Hedge- of fix Months old, his Back and Sides and Tail are full of Hog cr Urchin. sharp Quills, so that if any Creature approach, they will contract themselves to a globular Form; if a Creature attack them, those Quills are so sharp and lose in their Skins that they fix in the Mouth of the Adversary and leave their own Skin. They will strike with great force, with their Tails; fo that whatever falls under the lash of them, are certainly 'fill'd with their Prickles: But that they shoot their Quills, as some affert they do, is a great mistake as to the American, and I believe as to the African Hedge-Hog or Percupine alio; as to the former I have taken them at all Seasons of the Year. See Chap. 5. Sect. 2.

the

It is needless to describe the fresh-water Tortoise, whose Of the Tor- Form is so well known in all Parts: but their way of pro-$5 €. pagating their Species is not fo univerfally known. I have observed that fort whose Shell is about fourteen or fixteen Inches wide: in their Coition or Treading they may be heard half a Mile, making a noise like a Woman washing her Linnen with a batting Staff. They lay their Eggs in the Sand; near fome deep still Water, about a Foot beneath the furface of the Sand They are very curious in covering them with the Sand, To that there/is not the lent mixture of it amongst them; nor the least rising of Santon the Beach where they lie ! I have often fearch'd for them with the Indians, by thursting a Stick into the Sand, about the Beech at random, and brought up some part of an Egg clinging so it: and uncovering the Place have found near an hundred & fifty in one Neit. Bothetheir Eggs & Flesh are good-Eating when boil'd &c., I have observed a difference as to the length of Time which they are hatching, which is between twenty & thirty Days, some sooner than others: Whether this difference ought to be imputed to the various Quality or Site of the Sand in which they lay (as to it's cold or heat &c) I leave to the Conjecture of the Virtuofi. --- As foon as they were hatch'd, they broke thro' the Sand and betook themselves to the Water, as far as I could discover, without any further Care or Help of the Old Ones.

Of the Salmin I shall only note, that they come from the Sect. V: Sea early in the Spring, to the fresh Rivers; and with great Or the Salpains afcend the Falls, till they come to the Heads of the Rivers; where the Water runs riffling over-a coarteGravel, near some Pond or deep still Water: there they work Holes to lodge in, and in the Night refort to them, by two & two, the Male with his Female; thus lying together the Female ciects a Spawn, like a Pea; the Male a Sperm like Milk, which fink among the Gravel. I have often been fifting . for them, with a Torch in the Night, when the Water hathbeen so shoal that they have lien with their Backs & Tails above the Water: and if our Spear mis'd it's stroke, the Fish darted at would flutter & alarm the whole Shoal, (tho' it confided of a vast Multitude) which immediately repaired to the deep Water, and return'd not in plenty for feveral Nights. When the Leaf falls they have done Spiwning, and return to the Sea.

CHAP. VII.

Of their Feasting, &c.

HEN the Indians determine for War, or are enter-ing upon a particular Expedition, they kill a num-Feating be ber of their Dogs, burn off their Hair, and cut them into fore they go Pieces; leaving only one Dog's Head whole; the rest of the Flesh they boil, and make a fine Feast of it: after which, out to War. the Dog's Head that was left whole is torch'd, 'till the Note and Lips have firmk from the Teeth, and left them bare and grinning; this done; they fasten it on a Stick, and the Indian who is proposed to be Chief in the Expedition takes the Head into his Hand and fings a Warlike Song : in which he mentions the Town they defign to Attack, at d the principal Man in it, threatning that in a few Days he will carry that Man's Head and Scalp in his Hand, in the same manner. When the Chief hath Sung, he to places the Dog's Head as to grin at him whom he supposeth will go his Second: who, if he accepts, takes the Head in his Hand and fings, but if he refuse to go, he turns the Teeth A to another; and thus from one to another 'till they have inlifted their Company.

The Indians imagine that Dog's Flesh makes them bold and courageous! I have seen an Indian split a Dog' Head with a Hatchet, and take out the Brainshot, and eat them raw, with the Blood running down his Jaws!

Sect. II. When a Relation dies; in a still Evening, a Squaw will Of their walk on the highest Land near her abode, and with a loud, Mourningfor mournful Voice exclaim, Ob hawe, hawe, with a long the Dead, and Feast after it mournful Tone to each hawe, for a long time together.

After the mourning Season is over, the Relations of the deceased make a Feast to wipe off Tears; and they may Marry freely. If the deceas'd were a Squaw, the Relations consult together and choose a Squaw (doubtless a Widow) and send her to the Widower: and if he like her he takes her to be his Wise, if not, he sends her back; and the Relations choose and send 'till they find one that he approve the of

If a young Tellow determines to marry, his Relations and S. 7. 11 the Jefult advice him to a Gal: and the young I clow goes winto the Wigwam where she is, and looks on her san his her, and I kes her, he tosseth a ghip or Stick into her Lap, which she makes, and with a reserved, side-Look views the Person who all of serient it; yet handleth the CL p with Admiration as the she wondred from whence it cause. If she likes him, she throws the Chip to him, with a modest Smile; and then nothing is wanting but a Ceremony with the Jesuit to consummate the Marriage: But if the young Squaw distance the Fellow, she with a surly Countenance throws the Chip aside, and he comes no more these.

If Parents have a Daughter marrigeable II, they feek a -- Ocabor Husband for her, who is a good Hunter. And it he have to a Gun and Ammunition, a Canoc Spear and Hatchet; a Monoodah ‡ and crocked Knife, a beking-Glass & Paint; a Pipe, Tobacco and Knot-Bowl to tots a kind of Dice in, he is accounted a Gentleman of a plentiful Fortune. [By their fort of Dice they lote much Time, playing whole Days and Nights together: and sometimes their whole Estate: the this is accounted a great Vice by the OldMen.] Whatever the new-married-Man procures the first Year belongs to his Wife's Parents. [If the young Pair have a Child within a Year and nine Months, they are the't to be very forward, slibidinous Persons.]

There is an old Story told among the Indians of a Fa-Sect. IV. mily, who had a Daughter that was accounted a finished A Digression Beauty, and adorned with the precious Jewel of an Indian comming in Education! So form'd, by Nature and polish'd by Art they Rape comcould not find for her a suitable Consort! At length, while mirred by a chey resided on the Head of Penoh scat River, under the White-Doman Hills called the Tedden, this fine Creature was missing stand to the Head of Peroh for the After much with Hills her Parents could have no Account of her. After much called the Time spent, Pains, and Tears show red in quest of her; Tedden, Co.

A Menooday is an Indian Bag.

A Virgin who has been educated, to make Monoodah's and Birch-Diffies, to face Snow-Shoes and make Indian Shoes, to firing Wampum-Beirs, face Birch Canoes, and boil the Kettle, is effected as a Lady of faceAccomplishments.

they saw her, diverting her self with a beautiful Youth, whose Hair like her's flow'd down below his Waster Swiming, Washing, &c. in the Water; but the Youths vanished upon their Approach *. This beautiful Person, whom they imagin'd to be one of those kind Spirits who inhabit the Teld n; they look'd upon him as their Son-in-Law: so that (according to Custom) they called upon him for Moose, Bear, or what ever Creature they desired, and if they did but go to the Water-side and signify their desire, the Creature which they would have, came Swimming to them!

I have heard an Indian fay, that he lived by the River at the Foot of the Tellion, and in his Wigwam, feeing the top of it thro' the Hole left in the top of the Wigwam for the passing of Smoke, he was tempted to travel to it: accordingly he fet out early on a Summer's Morning, and laboured hard in ascending the Hill all Day, and the Top feem'd as distant from the Place where he lodged at Night, as from the Wigwam whence he began his Journey: and concluding that Spirits were there, never date make a fecond Attempt.

I have been credibly inform'd that several others have fail'd in the same Attempt: particularly, that three young Men towr'd the Teddon three Days and an half, and then began to be strangely disordered & delirious, and when their Imagination was clear, and they could recollect where they were, and had been; they found themselves return'd one Days Journey: how they came down so far, they can't guess, unless the Genii of the Place convey'd them! These White Hills at the Head of Penoblest River, are, by the Indians, said to be much higher than those, call'd Agiocko-cbock, above Saco.

Europa's Rape.

Where now, in his divinest Form array'd, in his true Shape he captivates the Maid; Who gazes on him, and with wond'ring Eyes Beholds the new majestick Figure rise, His glowing Features, and celestial Light, And all the god discover'd to her fight.

But to return to an Indian Feart, of which you may te- Ster V. quest a Bill of Fare, before you go; and if you dill ke it it in the same thay at Home. The Ingredients are Fifth, Flesh, or Ingian i. to Corn and Beans boil'd together-, or Hafty-Pudden ma'e of pounded Corn: Whenever and as often as the e are plenty; an Indian boils four or five large Kettles full, and fends a Mellenger to each Wigwam-Door; who exclaims, Kub Men loorebab! i. e. I come to conduct you to a Feaft: The Man within demands whether he mutt take, a Spoon, or a Knife in his Dish which he always carries with him. They appoint two or three Young Men to Meis it out, to each Man his Portion according to the number of his Family at Home; which is done with the utmost exactness. When they have done eating, a young Fellow stands without the Door, and crys alou I Men, Common ok, Come & fetch ! Immediately each-Squaw goes to her Husband and takes what he has left, which the carries Home and eats with her Children. For meither married Women nor any Youth under twenty Kears of Age are allowed to be present: but old Widow-Squaws and Captive Men may fet by the Door. The Indian Men continue in the Wigham, tome relating their Warlike Exploits'; others something Comical; others give a Narrative of their Hunting; the Seniors give maxims of Prudence and grave Counfels to the Young Men: tho' every ones Speech be agreable to the run of his own Fancy, yet they confine themselves to Rule, and but one speaks at a Time. After every Man has told his Story, One rifes up, Sings'a Feast-Song, and others succeed alternate-Jy as the Company fee fit.

Necessity is the Mother of Invention. If an Indian have ordinary, and lost his Fire-Work, he can presently take two Sticks, the ting Fire and SECT. VI.

Their extraordinary, ways of gerting Pire and boiling their Food.

^{*} What Lord of ed would hid his Cook prepare, Mangors, Potaris, Championons, Cavare?

'Or would our thrum Cooped Ancestors find field:

'For want of Supar Tongs, or Spoons for Salt?

Where colley thing that every Soldier got, Fowl, Bicon, Cabbage, Mitton, and white not, Was all thrown into Bank, and went to Pot.

one harder than the other (the drier the better) and in the Voftest make an Hollow or Socket, to which they'll fit one end of the hardest Stick; then holding the fostest Wood firm between their Knees; they fix the end of the har ! Stick made fit into the Socket, and whiel it round in their Hand like a Drill, and it takes Fire in a few Minutes.

If they have lost or left their Kettle, itis but putting the Victuals into a Birch-Diff, leaving a vacancy in the middle, filling it with Water, and putting in hot Stones alternately : and they will thus thro'ly boil the toughest Neck of Beef.

CHAP. VIII.

Of my three Years Capticity with the French.

SECT. I. Of a Contention among them to fell me to the French. 2

HEN about fix Year's of my doleful Captivity had past, my second Indian Master dyed, whose Equaw and my first Indian Master disputed whose Slave I should the Indians, be; and some malicious Persons advited them to end the Quarrel by putting a Period to my Life : but honeft Father Simon, the Priest of the River, told them that it would be a heinous Crime, and advised them to fell me to the French. There came annually one or two Men of War to Supply the Fort, which was on the River about thirty four Leagues from the Sea: The Indians having Advice of the Arrival of a Man of War at the Mouth of the River, they, about thirty or forty in Number went aboard: For the Gentlemen from France made a Present to them every Year, and fet forth the Riches & Victories of their Monarch &c. at this Time they presented aBag or two of Flour with some Piunes, as Ingredients for a Feast. I, who was dress'd up in an old greaty Blanket, without Cap, Hat or Shirt, (for I had no Shirt for the fix Years, but that which was on my Back when I was taken) was invited into the great Cabbin, where many well rigg'd Gentlemen were fitting; who would fain have had a full view of me: I endeavoured to hide my felf behind the Hängings, for I was much ashamed; thinking of my former wearing Cloaths, and of my living with People ple who could rigg as well as the best of them, My Maste asked me, Whether I chair to be fold aboard the Man of War, or to the Inhabitants ? . I replied with Teats, I flew'd be glad if you would fell me to the English from whom you took me, but if I must be fold to the Prench, I chaose to be Sold to the lowest on the River, 'or nearest Inhabitant. to the Sea, about twenty-five Leagues from the Mouth of the River : for I thoit, that, if I were fold to the Gentlemen aboard the Man of War, I should never return to the English. This was the first fight I had of Salt Water in my Captivity, and the first time that I had tasted Salt or Bread.

My Master presently went ashore, and after a few Days Stor. Il. all the Indians went up the River; and when we came to Ot my being the House which I mentioned to my Master, he went ashore to the with me and tarried all Night: the Master of the House spake kindly to me in Indian, for I could not then speak one Word of French : Madam also look'd pleasant on me, and gave me some Bread. The next Day I was fent fix Leagues further up the River to another French House. My Master and the Fryar tarried with Monsieur Decbouffour, the Gentleman who had entertain'd us the Night before. Not long after, Father Simon came and faid, Now you are one of us, for you are fold to that Gentleman by whom you were entertained the other Night. I replied ; --- Sold ! --to a Frenchman! --- I could fav no more! --- went into the Woods alone and wept till I could scarce see or stand! The word Sold, and that to a People of that Perswasion, which my dear Mother so much detested, and in her last Words manifested so great Fears of my falling into! --- the Thoughts of these almost broke my Heart! When I had given yent to my Passions, I rub'd my Eyes, endeavouring to hide my Grief: But Father Simon perceiving that my · Eyes were swoln, called me aside; and bid me not to grieve: for the Gentleman to whom I was fold was of a good humour, that he had formerly bought two Captives of the Indians, who both went home to Bofton; this in some measure revived nie. But he added, that, he did not suppose that I would ever incline to go to the English, for the French way of Worship was much to be preferred : also, that he should pass that way in about ten Days, and if I did not like to live with the French better than with the Indians. he would buy me again. On the Day following, Father Simon and my Indian Mafter went up the River fix & thirty Leagues, to their Chief Village, and I went down the River fix Leagues with two Frenchmen to my new Master: Who kindly receiv'd me, and in a few Days Madam made me an Ozna Frigs Shirt and French Cap, and a Coat out of one of my Matter's old Coats; then I threw away my greafy Blanket and Indian Flap, and look'd as imart as ----. And I never more faw the old Fryar, the Indian Village, or my Indian Master, till about fourteen Years after I faw my Indian Master at Port-Royal whither I was fent by the Government, with a Flag on Truce, for exchanging Prisoners: and again about twenty four Years since he came to St. Fibn's to George's to see me, where I made him very welcome.

Secr. III.
Of my Employment among the French.

I. My French Master held a great Trade with the Indians, which suited me very well, I being thorow in the Languages at of the Tribes at Cape Sable's and St. John's. I had not lived long with this Gentleman before he committed to me the Keys of his Store &c. and my whole Employment was Trading and Hunting; in which I acted faithfully for my Master, and never knowingly wrong'd him to the value of one Farthing. They spake to me so frequently in Indian, that it was some time before I was perfect in the French Tongue. Monsieur generally had his Goods from the Man of War which came there annually from France.

In the Year 1696 two Men of War came to the Mouth of the River, which had taken the New-Port, Capt. Paxton Commander, and brought him with them: They made the Indians some Presents, and invited them to join in an Expedition to Pemmaquid, which Invitation they accepted, and soon after arrived there; and Capt. Chubb. delivered the

The Reverend Dr. Mather tays wittily (as he faid every thing) "This Clubb found Opportunity in a pretty Chubbil manner, to kill the famous Edgeremet & Abenquid, a couple of principal Indians, with one or two other Indians, on a Lord's Day, the fixteenth of February 1695. If there were any unfair Dealing in this Action of ^{} Chubb, there will be another February, not far off, wherein the A venger of Blood will take their Satisfaction. Hift of N. E. B. 7. P. 79.

Fort, without much dispute, to Monsieur Debervel their Chief; as I heard the Gentleman fay whom I lived with, who was there present $. Early in the Spring I was fent, with three Frenchmen, to the Mouth of the River, for Provision which came from Port-Royal. We carried over Land, from the River to a large Bay, where we were driven on an Mand . by a North-East Storm, and were kept there seven Dyys, without any Sustenance, for we expected a quick Passeg: and carried nothing with us; the Wind continuing boitterous, so that we could not return back, and the Ice prevented our going forward: After seven Days the Ice broke up, and we went forward, tho' we were so weak that we could scarce hear each other speak; and the People at the Mouth of the River were surprized to see us so feeble, and advised us to be cautious & abitemious in eating. By this Time, I knew as much of Fasting as they, and dieted on Broth, and recovered very well, as also one of the others did; but the other two would not be advised : and I never faw any Perfons in greater Tornient than they were, till they obtain'd a Passage--- on which they recovered.

A Friar who lived in the Family invited me to Confession, Sect. IV. but I excused my self as well as I could. One Evening he transaction took me into his Apartment, in the dark, and advised me while I was to confess to him what Sins I had committed: I told him, among them. that I could not remember a thousandth part of them (they were so numerous:) Then he bid me remember and relate as many as I could, and he would pardon them; fignifying that he had a Bag to put them in. I told him that I did not believe that it was in the power of any but GOD to pardon Sin. He asked me, whether I had read the Bible? I told him that I had when I was a little Boy, fo long fince, that I had forgot most of it. Then he told me, that he did not pardon my. Sins ; but when he knew them

44 But ev'n' the Best are guilty by Mistake

Dar last quoted Author fays, on the fourth or fifth of August, Chubb with an unaccountable Balenels did Surrender the Brave Fort of Pempaguid into their Hands.

[&]quot; Unthinking Men no fort of Scruples make 44 And tome are bad, only for Mitchief's take;

he prayed GOD to pardon them: when, perhaps I was at my Sports and Plays.---He wish'd me well, and hoped that I should be better advised, and said that he should call for me in a little Time: Thus he dismiss'd and never call'd me to Confession more.

Of a Jessie's The Gentleman whom I lived with had a fine Field of Ceremony to Wheat, which great numbers of Black Birds, visited; and Haunt of destroy'd much of. But the French said a Jesuit would Black Birds, come and banish them; who came at length, and all things were prepared, viz. a Bason of, what they call, Holy-Water,; a Staff with a little Brush to sprinkle withal, & the Jesuit's white Robe, which he put on. I ask'd several "Prisoners, who had lately been taken by Privateers and brought hither, viz. Mr. Woodberry, Cocks, & Morgan, whether they would go and fee the Ceremony? Mr. Wood-berry ask'd me, whether I defigned to go? I told him that I did. He faid, that I was then as bad a Papist as they, and a d-n'd Fool. I told him that I believ'd as little of it as they did, but I inclined to fee the Ceremony, that I might rehearse it to the English.] They entred the Field and walk'd through the Wheat in Procession, a young Ladgoing before the Jesuit with a Bason of their Holy-Water; then the Jesuit with his Brush, dipping it into the Bason, and sprinkling the Field on each side of him; next him a little Bell tingling, and about thirty Men following in order, Singing, with the Jesuit, Ora pro N. bis; at the End of the Field they Wheel'd to the Lest about, and return'd. Thus they went through the Field of Wheat, the Birds rising before them and lighting behind them. At their return I faid to a French Lad; The Fryar hath done no Service. -- He had better take a Gun and shoot the Birds. The Lad. left me a while (I tho't, to ask the Jesuit what to fay) and when he returned, he faid, the Sins of the People were fo great, that the Fryar could not prevail against those Creatures. The fame Jesuit as vainly attempted to banish the Muschetoes at Sigenetto, for the Sins of that People were so great also, that he could not prevail against them, but rather drew more: as the French inform'd me!

Some Time after Col Hawthorn attempted the taking the Sici-French Fort up this River; we heard of them fome time before they came up the River, by the Guardtmat Governour Vielson had order'd at the River's Mouth. Monneur, der A theGentleman whom I lived with was gone to France; and the is Madam Advised with me---- She then defired me to nail the I at Paper on the Door of our H use, containing as sollows;

I intreat the General of the hogath not to born my Hiceor Barn, nor deftroy my Cattle, I I n't jagge toat meb an Army come up this River to delir va few Inhabitants is a but for the Fort above us. I have firm Kirling's to the Linglish Captives as we were Capacitated, and have verget and Captives of the Indians and fent them to Boston : and have One now with . us, and he shall go also when a convenient Opportunity prosents, and be defires it.

This done, Madam faid to me;

" Little English; We have shewn you Kindness; and now it lies in your Power to serve or differve us, as you "know where our Goods are hid in the Woods, and that Monsieur is not at Home: I could have sent you to the Fort and put you under Confinement, but my Respects 66 to you, and affurance of your Love to us; has disposed ee me to confide in you, periwaded that you will not hurt ".us nor our Affairs. And now if you will not run away " to the English who are coming up the River, but serve our Interest, I will acquaint Monsieur of it at his return " from France, which will be very pleasing to him: And "I now give my Word, that, you shall have liberty to go " to Boft n on the first Opportunity (if you defire it) or that any other Favour, in my Power, shall not be de-

" ny'd you". I replied; " Madam; It is contrary to the Nature of " the English to requite Evil for Good. I shall endeavour with them, and yet endeavour not to differve you either to ferve you and your Interest. I shall not run to the English; but if I am taken by them, shall willingly go [&]quot; in your Persons or Goods".

I The Place where our House stood, was called Haginfack, twenty-five Leagues from the River's Mouth, as before noted.

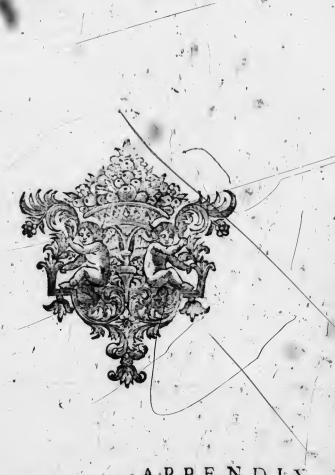

This faid, We embark'd and went in a large Boat and . Canoe two or three Miles up an Eaftern-Branch of the River that comes from a large Pond: and in the Evening fent down four Hands to make discovery; and while they were fetting in the House the English surrounded sit and took one of the four; the other three made their escape, in the dark, through the English Soldiers, and came to us, and gave a furprizing Account of Affairs. Again, Madam faid to me, "Little English; Now you can go from us, 66 but I hope you will remember your Word!" I faid; " Madam, Be not concern'd; for I will not leave you in "this Strait". She faid, "I know not what to do with " my two poor little Babes ! " I faid, " Madam, the " fooner we embark and go over the great Pond the better." Accordingly we embark'd and went over the Pond. The next Day we spake with Indians, who (were in a Cance and) gave us an Account that Sigenetto-Town was taken and burnt. Soon after we heard the great Guns at Governour Vielbon's Fort, which the English engag'd several Days, kill'd one Man, and drew off and went down the River; for it was so late in the Fall, that had they tarried a few Days longer, in the River; they would have been froze in for the Winter. Hearing no report of the great Guns for feveral Days, I with two others went down to our House, to make discovery -: where we found our young Lad who was taken by the English when they went up the River: For the General was so honourable that, on reading the Note on our Door, he ordered that the House and Barn should not be burnt, nor their Cattle or other Creatures kill'd; except one or two, and the Poultry, for their Ule : and at their return, order'd the young Lad to be put ashore. Finding things in this Posture, we return'd and gave Madam an Account: --- She acknowledged the many Favours which the English had shewn her with Gratitude and treated me with great Civility. The next Spring Monsieur arriv'd from France in the Man of War; who thank'd me for my Care of his Affairs, and faid that he would endeavour to fulfill what Madam had promifed to me.

And accordingly in the Year 1693, the Peace being pro-Sher. VI. claim'd, and a Sloop come to the Mouth of the River, with leafe, and rea Ransom for one Michael/Cooms; I put Monsieur in mind turn to of his Word: I told him that there was now an Opportu- Friends. nity for me to go and fee the English. He advised me to tarry, and told me that he would do for me as for his own &c. I thank'd him for his Kindness, but chose rather to go to Boston, for I hoped that I had some Relations yet, alive. Then he advited me to go up to the Port and take my Leave of the Governour: which I did, and he fpake very kindly &c. Some Days after I took my Leave of Madam; Monfigur went down to the Mouth of the River with me to see me safe aboard, and asked the Matter, Mr. Starker, a Scotch Man, whether I must pay for my Passage? if io, he would pay it himself rather than I should have it to pay at my Arrival at B fron, but gave me not a penny. The Maiter told him that there was nothing to pay, and . that if the Owner should make any Demand, he would pay ' it himfelf rather than a poor Prisoner should suffer, for he was glad to fee any English Person come out of Captivity.

On the thirteenth of June I took my leave of Monsicur, and the Sloop came to Sail for Roft n; where we arrived on the nineteenth of the same at Night. In the Morning, after my Arrival, a Yo th came on Board, and asked many Questions relating to my Captivity, and at length gave me to understand that he was my little Brother, who was at P'av with some other Children, and upon hearing the Guns and feeing the Indians run, made their escape to the Fort, and went off with the Captain and People; and that my Elder Brother who made his Elcape from the Farm, whence I was taken, and our two little Sifters, were alive, and that our Mother had been dead fome. Years, &c. as ahove related. Then we went affore, and faw our Eldes, Brother & 3.

On the record of Ligust 1689, I was taken, and on the afacterish of first 1698, arrived at Boston: to that I was able t eight Years ten Months and feventeen. Days: In all which Time, tho' lunderwent extream Difficulties; yet I faw much of the Goodnets of GOD.

May the most powerful and beneficent Bring, accept of this publick Testimony of it, and bless my Experiences to excite others to confide in his All-sufficiency; thro the infinite Merits of JESUS CHRIST!

APPENDIX.

APPENDIX

CHERREN BERREN BERRE

Containing Minutes of the Employments, Publick Stations &c. of folin Cyles, Elg, Commander of the Garrison on St. George's River.

iny let ro the Government for their Favour. Soon after I was employed by old Father Mitchel of Malden, to go his Interpreter on Trading Account to St. John's River.

Orligo 14: 1669, I was employed by the Government, Lieut. Governour Scouperrow Commander in Chief; to go Interpreter, at Three Panals per Month, with Major Converse, and old Capt. Allen, to Panals to fetch Captives — at our return to B. fine I was diffused. But within a few Days the Governour sent for me to Interpret a Conference with Binguageen and other Indians then in Goal.

Sometime after I was again put in Pay in order to go Interpreter with Col. Piccips and Capt. Southack in the Province Galley to Cafe Bay, to Exchange faid Indians for English Captives. December 1698, we return d to Basson with several English Captives, and I was dimited the Service, and defired to attend it in the Spring. I pleaded to be kept in Pay that I might have wherewith to support me at School--- I went into the Country to Rowley (where Boarding was cheap) to practice what little I had attain'd at School.

March 1609. With the little of my Wages that I could referve, I paid for my Schooling & Board, and attended the Service upon Request; and was again put into Pay, and went with Col. Phillips and Major Converse in a large Brigantine up Kenebeck River, for Captives: and at our return to Boston, the Province Galley being arrived from New York with my Lord Brillemont, and the Province Truck put on board, I was ordered on board the Galley; we Cruifed the Eastern Shore: And in November 1699, I was put out of Pay, tho' I pleaded to be continued under Pay seeing I must attend the Service in the Spring, and be at considerable Expense in the Winter for my Schooling.

V

In the Spring 1700, I attended the Service & was put into Pay--27/b. of August---Orders from the Government to build a Fort at Casco Bay, which was finished October 6tb. and the Province-Truck landed and I ordered to reside, as Interpreter, with a Captain &c., in said Garrison. Not long after Governour Dudley sent me a Lieutenants Commission with Memorandum on the back---No surtler Pay but as Interpreter at Three Pounds per Month.

August 10th. 1703. The French and Indians besieged our Fort six Days, Major March Commander: On the 16th. Day of the same, Capt. Southack arrived in the Province Galley, and the Night sollowing the Enemy withdrew.

May 19th. 1704. I received a few Lines from His Excellency directing me to leave my Post and accompany Col. Church on an Expedition round the Bay of Fundee. September following I return'd to my Post without any further Wages or Encouragement for that Service than the before mentioned Pay at the Garrison.

April 1706. There was a Change of the Chief Officer at our Garrison-I chose to be dismiss'd with my old Officer---which was granted.

1706. His Excellency Governour Dudley presented me a Captain's Commission, and order'd Col. Saltenstall to detach fifty effective Men, to be delivered to me in order for a March----.

May 1707. I entred on an Expedition to Pert-Royal, Col. March

Commander in Chief, --- at return dismis'd,

May 12th. 1708. I receiv'dOrders from His Excellency to go to Port-Royal with a Flag of Truce to exchange Prisoners, and brought off all-i-at return dismis'd.

1709. I receiv'd a Commission, and Col. Noves had Orders to detach forty Men and deliver to me, in order to join the Forces for Canada. At Hull, August 1st. 1709, I received Orders from His Excellency to leave my Company with my Lieutenant, and go to Perr-Royal with a Flag of Truce to Exchange Prisoners.

A Copy of which Defire or Order is as follows, viz.

Boston, August 1st. 1709.

Sir,

Defire you to Embarque on the Sloop Hannah and Ruth, Tho mas Waters, Master, a Flag of Truce for Port-Royal, to whom when you are on board, you will give Orders to Sail to Port-Royal accordingly.

At your Arrival there attend Mr. Supercass the Governour, and give him my Letter, withal acquainting him you have Nine French Prisoners on Board, which are all that are in my Hands without reserve. Receive his Direction for the Landing of em: And let "him know that I expect he do me a like Justice in letting you have all the English Prisoners within his Power, which you are to demand and infut on agreably to his own promite last Year by your felf. Demand to have them forthwith gathered together, that you may see and speak with them, and have them delivered to you, that you be not delayed.

"Observe to him my just Resentment of his breach upon me, in in not sending them early this Spring, according to his parche of Honour the last Year by your self; when I returned him upwards of Forty, and had made Provision for the bringing home of mine:

" His detention of them then, puts me to a repeated Charge.

"I expect he supply what may be surther necessary for the Support of the Prisoners in their Return, as I have done for his now, and at all times past.

"Let not your stay there be more than fix Days, if possible, and haften back with all imaginable Expedition.

"Be not by any means diverted from your demand and expectation of seeing the English Prisoners, and that you bring them with you, unless on your speaking with them they are not willing to come, but make their Election to be Transported elsewhere; as you have seen done by your Governour here.

"I have ordered the Master to attend your Orders. He will "shew you his Instructions, and I define you will see they be strict"ly observed, particularly in the Article referring to Trade, and the Government of his Company. I wish you a prosperous Voyage.

"And am, Sir,

Your Friend and Servant,

7. DUDLET.

"Make particular Inquiry after "Capt. Myles," and demand of this and Company's Release.

To Capt. John Gyles, Commission's

Accordingly arriving at Port-Royal, I was again kindly entertain'd by Governous Supercase, & brought off above an Hundred Pritoners: foon after my return our Forces, were dismiss'd, and I receiv'd no further consideration for my Service than Pay as Captain of my Company:

August 1715. I was desired and had great Promises made me by the Proprietors, and received Orders from His Excellency, to build a Forcat Pentsect. Soon after our Arrival there, the Indians came in the Night, and forbid our laying one Stone upon another. I told them I came with Orders from Governour Dudler to build a Fort, and if they diflik'd it they might aquaint him of it: and that if they came forceably upon us they or I should fall on the Spot: After such like hot Words they left us, and we went on with our Building, and sinished it Nivember 25th. 1715, and our Carpenters & Masons left us. My Wages were very small, yet the Gentlemen-Proprietors ordered me only Tive Pounds for my good Service &c.

July 12th. 1722. A number of Indians engag'd Fort George about two Hours, kill'd one Person, and then drew off to killing Cattle &c.

April 1725. I received Orders from His Honour Lieut. Governour Dummer to go ten Days March up Ammiscoggin River; and in my Absence the Indians kill'd two Men at our Fort 35-- I received no further Pay for said Service, -- only the Pay of the Garrison.

December 1216. 1725. I was difmis'd from Firt George, and Capt. Woodside received a Commission for the Command of that Place.

December 13th. 1725. 1 was Commiffion'd for the Garrison on St. George's River.

September 1726. I was detained some Months from my Post, by order of His Honour Lieux Governour Dummer, Commander in Chief, to Interpret for the Cape-Sable Indians, who were brought in & found Guilty of Piracy, there not being any other in the Province that had their Language; for which His Honour and the honourable Council cented me Ten Pounds; which I gratefully received.

November 28. 1728. I was Commissioned for the Peace.

Thave had the Honour to serve this Province under eight Commanders in Chief, Governours and Lieut. Governours, from the Year 1698, to the Year 1736. And how much longer my Service may continue——I submit to the Governour of the World, who over-rules every Circumstance of Life which relates to our Happiness & Usefulness, as in infinite Wisdom He sees meet.

Be calm, my Delius, and Serene,
However Fortune change the Scene!
In thy most dejected State,
Sink not underneath the Weight;
Nor yet when Happy Days begin,
And the full Tide comes rowling in,
Let not a fierce unruly Joy
The settled Quiet of thy Mind destroy:
However Fortune change the Scene,
Be calm, my Delius, and Serene.

ERRATUM: Page 1. line 4 from the bottom read founded by. p.14. l.26.r. as I. p. 15. f. 36. r. animerited. p. 25 l. 36. r. another way p. 34. l. 16. for to r. from. p. 39. l. 2. r. and l.21.for 12tb.r.20tb.l.23.for 10thr 28tb.l.36. for 10th. r.28tb.l.23.for 12t. r. 26.

