

DURHAM POLICE DEPARTMENT
Parking Enforcement – Seasonal
Starting Salary: $14.00/Hourly

The Durham, New Hampshire Police Department is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Seasonal Parking Enforcement Officer. Applicants selected to serve as the part time PEO will enforce state and local parking laws and ordinances for this nationally accredited police department. This position works flexible hours during the University of New Hampshire academic school year, not to exceed 25 hours a week. Qualified candidates will not work holidays, summertime months, or any time the University is not in session. This position pays $14.00 an hour.

PEO duties will include state law and local ordinance enforcement, collection of parking meter monies, parking meter repair, traffic direction and control, some radio communications, maintaining access to meters during the winter, and other duties as assigned or as applicable. Training and uniforms will be provided.

Minimum qualifications for this position include a high school diploma or GED, the ability to walk and/or stand for a minimum of 8 hours each day, lift/carry a minimum of 50 pounds for short distances, and must read, write, and verbally communicate in the English language. Applicants must have a valid driver's license. Applicants with tattoos, brands, or body piercings visible in short sleeve shirts or short pants will be disqualified. The qualified candidate will be subject to a background and reference check.

Your Letter of Interest, Resume and Town of Durham Application @ <http://www.ci.durham.nh.us/> must be received by:

Capt. David Holmstock by 4 P.M. on Thursday, August 16, 2018 at:
Durham Police Department
86 Dover Road
Durham, New Hampshire 03824

Interviews will be scheduled for Tuesday, August 21st and Wednesday, August 22nd. The anticipated starting date from this selection process is Monday, August 27, 2018. This date is subject to change.

Females and Minorities are encouraged to apply.
The Durham Police Department is an equal opportunity employer.