

Madbury 250th Anniversary Event

Hear Ye!
Colonial Militia Meets to Protect Madbury
Citizens From the Red Coats

13TH AND 14TH DAYS OF OCTOBER IN 2018
MORIARTY'S FIELD ON MILL HILL ROAD
ALL CITIZENS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND AND LEARN ABOUT THE DEFENSE OF THE COLONIES.

IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE RED COATS WILL ARRIVE FOR BATTLE
AT 1 O'CLOCK EACH DAY

FOOD, DRINK, CRAFTS, DEMONSTRATIONS AND
ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE AVAILABLE BOTH DAYS

Visit Colonial and British Camps

Open: Saturday 9 to 5 - Sunday 9 to 3

Saturday, October 13, 2018 - 9 am – 5 pm

- ~ NH 1st, 2nd, and 3rd regiments and the British Royal Rangers will be encamped and are open for visitors
- ~ Craft demonstrations and display booths will be open. Refreshments will be available.
- ~ 9:45 - 10:15 Presentation on the History of Madbury's Quilts

~ 10:30 - 11:30 ORHS Studio Orchestra - "The Music of Our Country's Founders" conceived and arranged by David Ervin, directed by Marc LaForce, David Ervin and Andrea von Oeyen.

~ 1:00 pm "Madbury's Powder Major" - Charles Goss, then the British arrive to do battle with the NH Regiments

Sunday, October 14, 2018 - 9 am – 3 pm

~ NH 1st, 2nd, and 3rd regiments and British Royal Rangers will be encamped and are open for visitors

~ Craft demonstrations and display booths will be open. Refreshments will be available.

~ 9:45 - 10:15 Plaques will be presented to owners of 13 oldest buildings

~ 10:30 - 11:30 - "Colonial Songs" by Carolyn Hutton, Sally Chetwynd, Paul Mangion

~ 1:00 pm "Madbury's Powder Major" - Charles Goss, then the British arrive to do battle with the NH Regiments

~ After the battle – Raffle Drawings by the Madbury Historical Society and others

Mark your calendars!